Ypsilanti High School

Ypsilanti, Michigan

The Y. H. S. Yearbook is sponsored by the Ypsilanti High School Student Council.

BECAUSE WE'RE YOUNG

Because we're young our thoughts will be
Of happy times and youthful memories;
We'll have a lifetime full of cheers
Of fun and knowledge through the years.

Dedication

We are happy to dedicate the 1963 Y. H. S. yearbook to Miss Gertrude Murray.

Miss Murray has done an outstanding job as advisor of the Student Council. Two of the major projects which illustrate the work of the Student Council are the purchase of the organ in the auditorium and the display cases and planters in the front of the school.

Besides being advisor of the Student Council, Miss Murray is head of the Business Education Department, a member of the M. E. A. and N. E. A., a charter and life member of M. B. E. A. as well as being past president of that organization, and is also a member of the North Central Business Education Association.

This is only a small way in which we can show our appreciation to Miss Murray for what she has done for the students of Ypsilanti High School.

This year Miss Murray will retire. She will long be remembered for her outstanding contribution and inspiration to the students and life of YHS.

Student Life

Miss Deanna Boga (Dan Bogart) after she had been chosen "Miss United Fund."

The seniors worked hard on their float, "LOOK MA, NO HAN'S."

Leon Birdyshaw, Sylvester Williams, Larry Brose were voted Homecoming Kings by the cheerleaders.

Underclassmen seem to have taken over the cafeteria.

Mr. Bohn, parade marshal, stands by the Jet's Club "Touchdown Machine."

Ken Aungst, Scott Davison, and Phil Sinkule are concentrating on their music at the Sophomore Reception.

Pam Cuthbert and Elaine Graichen are examples of senior maturity.

The sophomore float won first place in the Homecoming parade.

The French Club won third place with "WE'LL TOWER OVER THEM."

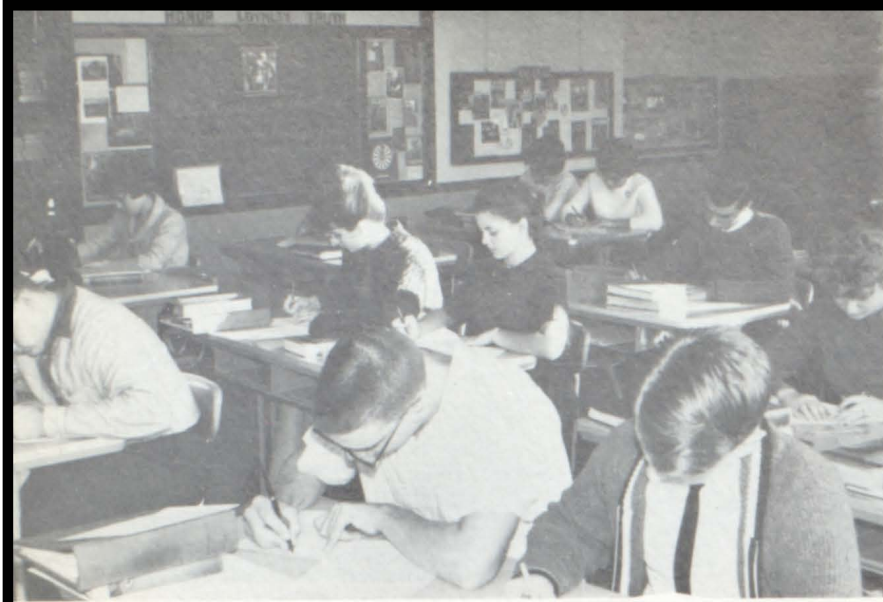

The girls study hard in Miss Bewalda's 6th hour shorthand class.

Janey Wilbanks holds Diane Fidler's first place poster.

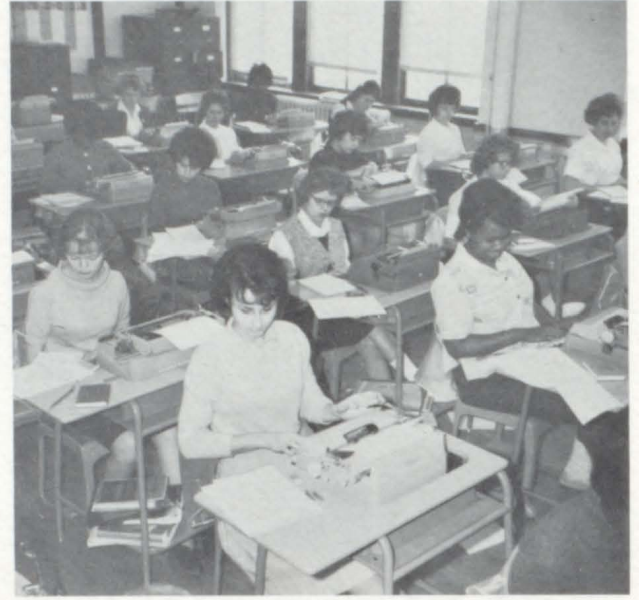

The seniors in Miss Neville's first hour English class are engrossed in their studies.

Everyone seems to have enjoyed the Sophomore Reception.

The making of paper mache is being demonstrated by these boys.

These typists are busy completing their lessons.

Phyllis Carty, Adaline Adams, Deanna Yates and Janet Horning are enjoying the National Honor Society progressive dinner.

Dick Ridenour shows his woodworking skill in woodshop.

Carol York and Barbara Cowan learn the techniques of business machines.

Phyllis Swiskowski and Pat Withrow added humor to the Drum Corps banquet in honor of the senior members.

Many hours of rehearsal made the All-School play a success.

Charlotte Jackson, Bonnie Grieff, Barb Cameron, and Jackie Seleska are watching a specimen in advanced biology class.

Mr. Siedler received a joke present from the girls in the D. B. C.

The members of J. C. L. wore Roman togas at the initiation.

The Student Council had their after Christmas sale.

"Fifteen rahs for the basketball team."

"Let me entertain you."

I wonder where Marty bought his wig.

The Thespians advertised the All-School play in the Homecoming parade.

Larry is trying to decide between the records, Peter Cottontail or the Easter Bunny.

Janet Kemp, treasurer; Bonnie Grief, secretary; Michael Bass, president.

The Class of 1963 is one that shall be remembered through the many years to come. We have been noted not only for our scholastic achievement, but for our athletic ability as well. The members of our class have been outstanding in the clubs, societies, and other organizations at Ypsilanti High School. Let us not forget the social events which have been so much fun for all--especially the Senior Farewell. Yes, it has indeed been a wonderful year, and we are proud to be the CLASS OF '63.

The senior girls enjoying the sacred lunch hour.

Aw, come on and smile!

Now what book do I need?

No, Mar, it goes like this.

So, that is what goes on in the little room labeled GIRLS.

The Three Stooges go to Hell... (Mich.)

Lunch with our German friends.

Man, you should see what's behind that curtain.

Sociology is always a favorite class.

MMMMMM....good!

A night to remember.

All together now: M-I-C-K-E-Y.....

Mike Bass, ready for the kick.

Maybe we didn't get first place, but those nights at the island were winners!

Oh, the excitement of dramatics class.

And Shakespeare was born in...

Our own Pep Band?

YEAH
SENIORS

Judo lessons, anyone?

Fast Nathan

Watch those calories, girls.

I'm covering up that rust spot.

Man, those late nights.

Busy, Jan?

Come on, Sally Ann, sell some more Sems!!!

Janice Baker seems to be telling Cecile Lagault and Linda Collins to type faster because Mr. Randall is coming!

Bennie Richmond demonstrates the use of a drill in machine shop.

Janet (Kemp) asks Sue (Keller), "I bet ya' didn't think I would slide down the banister, did ya'?"

Hey, Diane, are you trying to keep your hood down?

"How in the world could I have locked the keys in the car?" Priscilla McGuire asks, dumfounded.

Linda Lane and her escort enjoy the J-Hop, "Journey to the Stars."

Peter Kruger and Axel Monch, the two foreign exchange students from Germany, located their country on the globe.

Journey To The Stars

J-Hop

Marty and his committee are working (?) hard on the decorations.

The hours of work and planning (especially first hour) spent on our J-Hop seemed to make it turn out as one of the best yet.

These juniors seem to be studying ENGLISH?

A few of our junior artists seem to be very talented.

Terry, Larry, and Bob seem to be teasing Richard about his messy locker.

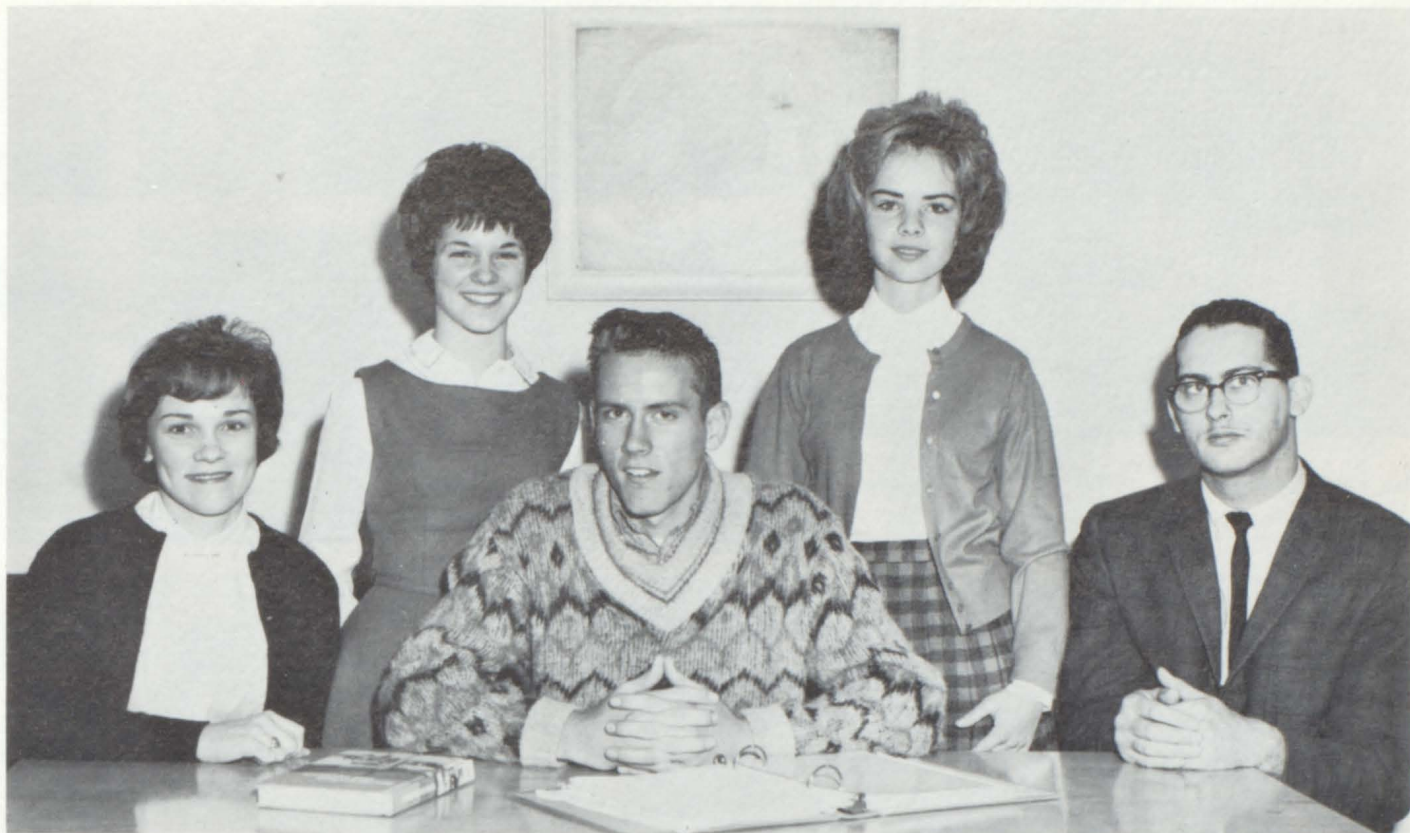

There seems to be a doubt in Steve's mind on whether we should mix the coke with the glue, so that the decorations will stick together.

Bruce and Steve seem to be warning people to STAY AWAY while we finish the decorations for the J-Hop.

The sophomore class, with its 472 students, is the largest class to have entered the doors of Ypsilanti High School. We started the year by taking first place with our float in the Homecoming Parade. We were honored at the Sophomore Reception and we participated in many other school activities. We ended the year successfully with the Senior Farewell.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Miss Crothers

Mr. Randall

Mrs. Lockwood

Mr. Wiltse

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Dr. Paul H. Emerich, Superintendent

The Board of Education and superintendent are continually and unselfishly working together to secure an advance in educational facilities in our city.

Tremendous gains for Ypsilanti High school this year include the renovation of the science departments, and natatorium; a new athletic field at the west end of town; also, the enlargement of the school parking lot. Future plans will see the remodeling of various parts of the building; the girls' locker room, and the gym office. This board has obtained sites and options for future schools, to further the advance of education in the Ypsilanti area.

Standing (l to r): Mr. E. U. Vielhauer, Mr. George B. Horning, Mrs. Beth W. Milford, Dr. Paul H. Emerich, Mr. John Montonye.

Seated: Mrs. Bradley M. Harris, Mr. Amos Washington, Mr. John C. Miller.

A d m i n i s t r a t o r s

Mr. Norris G. Wiltse, Principal.

Two of Ypsilanti Public Schools' best administrators are constantly seeking to promote the conditions necessary to the achievement of success for high school students. Schedules and programs of study receive great consideration, thus, keeping the sound principles of education.

Unselfishly, countless hours, excluding school hours, are devoted in planning exceptional programs of curricular and extracurricular activities for the students.

Mr. Hodley Cox, Assistant Principal.

Mr. Lincoln views the antics of these noble three. They are (l to r) Miss Neville, Mr. Randall, and Miss Crothers.

Why (???) It worked perfectly last hour. "Are you puzzled, Mr. Albert?"

"You say the dog ripped your term paper!" (Miss Bogg is just wondering.)

Miss Murray and Miss Slade seem quite happy about something (?).

Hard at work as usual is Mrs. Daschner, secretary to Dr. Emerich.

"Come in Cape Canaveral, come in!!" Actually this is Miss Lister, an expert in the language laboratory.

Just what makes Mr. Hebrew so interesting??

The J-Hop '63 caused these happy smiles. Left to right they are Brenda Wudyka who is the niece of Mr. Cox (she has been doing a fine job at our dances for several years), Mr. Cox, the proud uncle, and Mr. and Mrs. James Tackmann.

Talk, talk, talk, but so efficient--Mrs. Wright, secretary.

Mrs. Edwards--a "Paris Original."

Teaching and learning are both legal. Mrs. Distler (right) and student teacher, Miss Williams.

Larry knows the answer, but does Mr. Bohn???

Mrs. Wealch and her staff operate the library very smoothly.

ACTIVITIES

hen, secretary; Miss Murray, advisor; and Ernie Slater, vice-president.

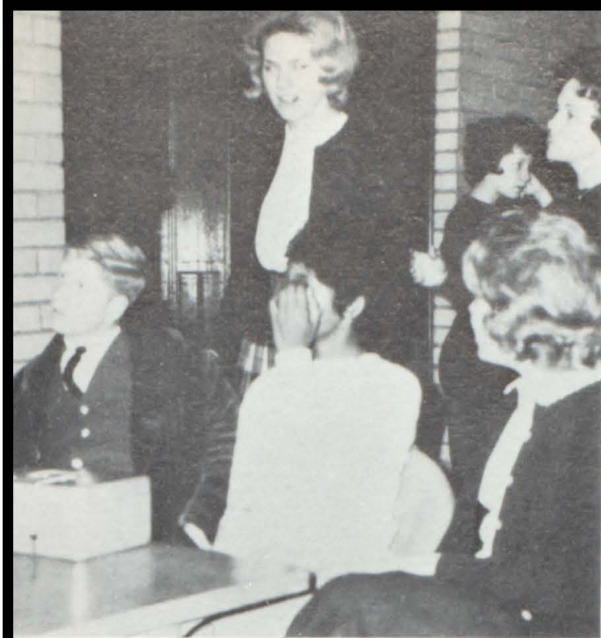

STUDENT COUNCIL

Elaine Graichen, Student Council secretary, models a school sweater.

Student Council meetings were held once a week.

During the past year the Student Council has sponsored many various activities. A Student Council sponsored dance, left; the magazine sale, right; and open house for parents.

Magazine sales representative, Joe Shields is giving the word to D. Doan, G. McFee, C. Lynch, and T. Stobie.

Students attending the dance above were (heartily?) greeted by T. Stobie, V. Brose, A. Bass, and B. Grieff.

PLAY

Arthur Boyd, Beverly, talks busily to Leon Birdyshaw, Whitesides. Don Cramer keeps a watch on Earl Gibbs, Bob Cain, Jimmy Carter, Tim Yoakom, Ken Cunningham, and Mike Phillips.

The whole gang worked very hard and long to make the 1963 senior play the best ever. Pictured above are the committees, cast and crews.

THE MAN WHO CAME TO DINNER was a three-act comedy presented to the community on two evenings in April. The directing staff which included Miss Janet Watson, Miss Iseminger, Pam Cuthbert, and Don Joslyn were extremely helpful with their comments, advice, and abilities. The senior play, along with other activities, helped prove how really great the class of '63 is and always will be.

Front Row (l to r): G. Manchester, D. Joslyn, Miss Watson, S. Wright, S. Davison. Second Row: D. Fidler, G. Peterson, E. Graichen, R. Wescott, B. Daschner, J. Horning, J.

Moore. Third Row: P. Cuthbert, M. McGinley, N. Thorold, M. Phillips, P. Hamilton, S. Davis, D. Nissly, D. Stribley.

THESPIANS

The Thespians purpose is to promote standards of excellence in all phases of the dramatic arts. This year the club presented two plays and had two formal initiations where the new members gave skits. They also held a few parties.

Thespians Priscilla McGuire, Pam Cuthbert, Billy Bedford, Elaine Graichen, and Ruth Ann Wescott are busy making posters to advertise the senior play.

Front Row (l to r): Mrs. Lockwood, Adaline Adams, Paul Hamilton, Margha McCarthy, Bonnie Grief. Second Row: Sally Deck, Ernie Slater, Deanna Yates, Arthur Boyd, Sue Keller, Sue Wright. Third Row: Janet Horning, Chuck Adams, Mike Bass, Phyllis Carty.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

N.H.S. members seem to be enjoying themselves at their progressive dinner.

Members of this society are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and service. The members, this year, engaged themselves in several worth-while service projects. One of these was the annual Red Feather Drive. The club also enjoyed many social functions

JETS CLUB

Y. H. S. did not need a touchdown machine to beat Holland in the homecoming game.

Through movies, trips, and extra time spent in the classroom, the Jets Club tries to further scientific interest at Y. H. S. The group is a fairly new one and it welcomes new members. Mr. James Bohn is the advisor and this years officers are Bob Cornish, president; Bob Chubb, vice-president; and Merideth Walters, secretary.

Phillips. Third Row: Dennis Allward, Don Cramer, John Willoughby.

Quill & Scroll

Barbara Cameron, president of Quill and Scroll; Andi Adams, editor of the Sem; and Bonnie Grieff, editor of the yearbook; look over material for their respective publications.

Quill and Scroll is an honorary group of students who have demonstrated their ability in journalistic work on our school publications. This year twenty students were selected for this honor.

DEBATE

Front Row (l to r): Adaline Adams, Deanna Yates, Mike Bass, Arthur Boyd, Mark Calkins. Second Row: Abbie Van de Walker, Pat Horne, Candi Beutell, Bob Cain, Cliff Schreiner, Sally Ann Deck, Betsy Dashner, Karen Hansen. Third Row: Janet Horning, Dennis Allward, Dan Brown, Chuck Stribley, Paul Hamilton, John Wehr, Sue Davis, Axel Monch.

Chuck Stribley and Dan Brown are two up and coming debaters.

This year the debaters at Y.H.S. have been discussing the pros and cons on the following subject. Resolved: that the United States should join in forming a Common Market among nations of the Western Hemisphere. This activity calls for a lot of time and concentrated study as the debaters know. Everyone at school is proud of our team and the great job they are doing.

Mrs. Horst, the advisor, led the team to many victories.

Forensic Key

Brown, Mike Bass, Sally Ann Deck, Janet Horning, Ann Hendricks, Bob Cain, Scott Davison, Chuck Stribley.

A forensic key is earned by any student who participates in speech activities. He must represent his school against students from other schools. The speech activities the student may participate in are discussion, debate, and spring speech contests. The following comprise the spring contest: interpretative reading, oration, humorous reading, extemporaneous speaking, and declamation.

Adaline Adams, Mrs. Horst, Sally Ann Deck, and Peter Kruger confer on a discussion topic.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Senior Editors Margha McCarthy, Paul Hamilton, and Elaine Graichen.

Sophomore Editors Mary Deming, Susan Rehberg, Betty Grieff, Sari Howard, David Greenway, and Veronica Brose.

Junior Editors Pam Steele, Trudy Anderson, Jill Rathman, and Peggy Dawson.

Typists-Wanda Short, Marcia Baptist, and Yolanda Gable.

Sue Keller, faculty editor; Dan Nissly, photographer; Dick Stribley, boy's sports editor; Jackie Berklich, student life editor; and Janet Kemp, proofreader.

Sue Spear, girls' sports editor and Bob Luebke, music editor, put the final touches on their pages.

Looking at a new issue of the paper are Dennis Caldwell, music editor; Joseph Austin, photographer; Barb Cameron, advertising manager; and Janet Horning, exchange editor.

This year the Sem staff has done an excellent job of informing the students of Y. H. S. Coming out every other week containing such features as Heap of the Week, Question of the Week, and Personality Spotlight, it keeps everyone interested. Last summer staff members Dan Nissly, Maureen McGinley, and Barb Cameron attended a workshop at Ohio University which has been a great benefit to the paper this year.

Ypsi Sem

It looks as if Merideth Walters is taking the place of a Holland player because he is being whipped.

Miss Crothers, advisor; Dennis Allward and Dan Bogart, presidents; Carol Flanagan, secretary; Phil Crane, historian; and Julia Moore, treasurer, led the Latin Club through a very successful year. For a money raising project the group sold school-book covers. They had many social functions including a banquet for the initiation of new members.

FRENCH CLUB

Front Row (l to r): S. Rehberg, J. Hunter, L. Anderson, C. Allison, Mrs. Edwards, S. Goodsman, M. Thomas, J. Pilote, J. Sayre, M. McCarthy, B. South, D. Rumford, L. Gillette, J. Nye, K. Conahan. Waterman, B. Cornish, E. Graichen, B. Bowman, J. Holly, J. Berklich, S. King, E. Thomas, P. Harris, L. Chandler.

The French Club this year had a record breaking membership and was the largest club at Y.H.S. Mrs. Mildred Edwards, along with President John Pilote, Vice-President Marsha Thomas, Secretary Sandy Goodman, and Treasurer Jane Sayre, headed the club. The group is strictly social and to carry on with their activities they sold candy bars. The members showed their cleverness and artistic ability by winning third place with their homecoming float.

All of the club members were very proud of their homecoming float.

SPANISH CLUB

Los Espanoles show their loyalty to the Braves by participating in the homecomnig parade.

Mrs. Francis Lister, advisor; Dan Brown, president; Richard Allison, vice-president; Lynn Vorce, secretary; and Sylvia Vick, treasurer, led the Spanish Club through a very exciting and fun-filled year. The club sold candy as a money raising project. The proceeds of this helped pay for a Spanish Banquet where Spanish foods were served. At the regular meetings the members entertained were by guest speakers, movies, and slides pertaining to the Spanish world.

Betsy Dashner shows promising teaching qualities.

The girls seem to be enjoying themselves at the initiation of new members.

Members of the Future Teachers are interested in becoming professional teachers. They gain knowledge and experience in the field by helping elementary school teachers throughout the city. This year the club helped with open house and sponsored a girl ask boy dance.

Front Row (l to r): P. McGuire, B. Bassett, S. Loper, Miss Bewalda, J. Rathman, Y. Gable, G. Holman. Second Row: D. Lee, C. Beutell, B. Daschner, P. Johnson, C. Jackson, G. Peterson, P. Moyle, M. A. Minier, P. Thompson. Third Row: B. Forche, S. Ho-

ley Smith, Bruce Hayes, Sue Wright, Bonnie Grief. Third Row: Pam Brown, Sue Good, Julia Moore, Yolanda Gable.

BIBLE CLUB

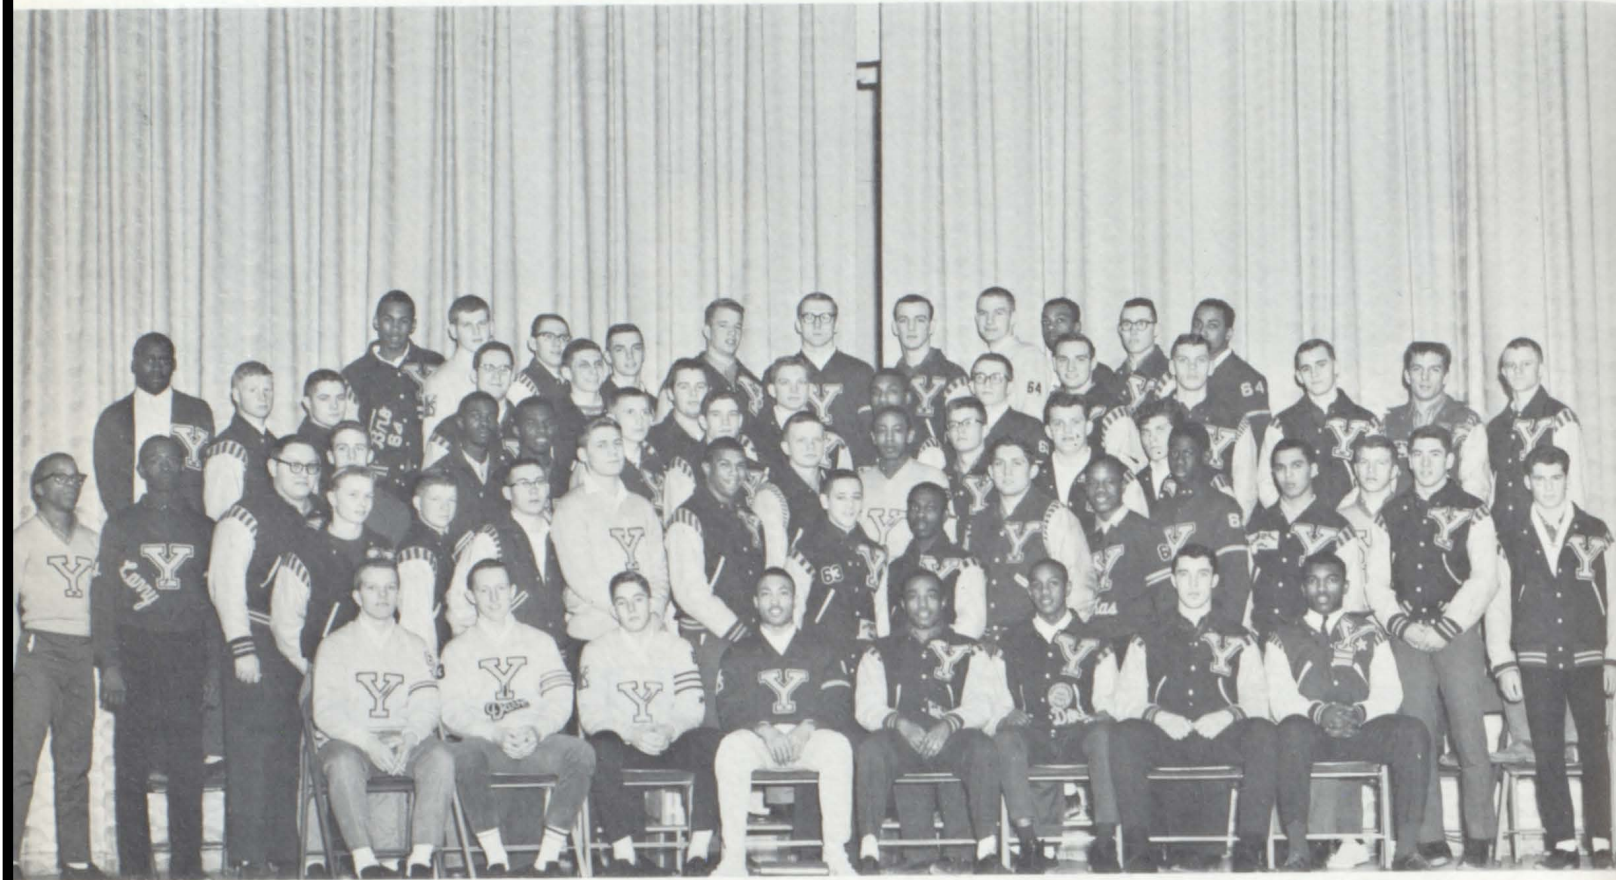

The Ypsilanti High School Bible Club is a part of the National Bible Club Movement with headquarters in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Their main objectives are to study the Bible, have fun, gain fellowship, and apply Christianity to the present day problems facing individuals and the world.

Members seem quite interested in singing hymns at one of their meetings during the lunch hour.

During the 1962-63 season, Ypsilanti High School athletic teams have done very well. This large group of lettermen testifies not only to the interest in athletics but as to the high quality of individual boys.

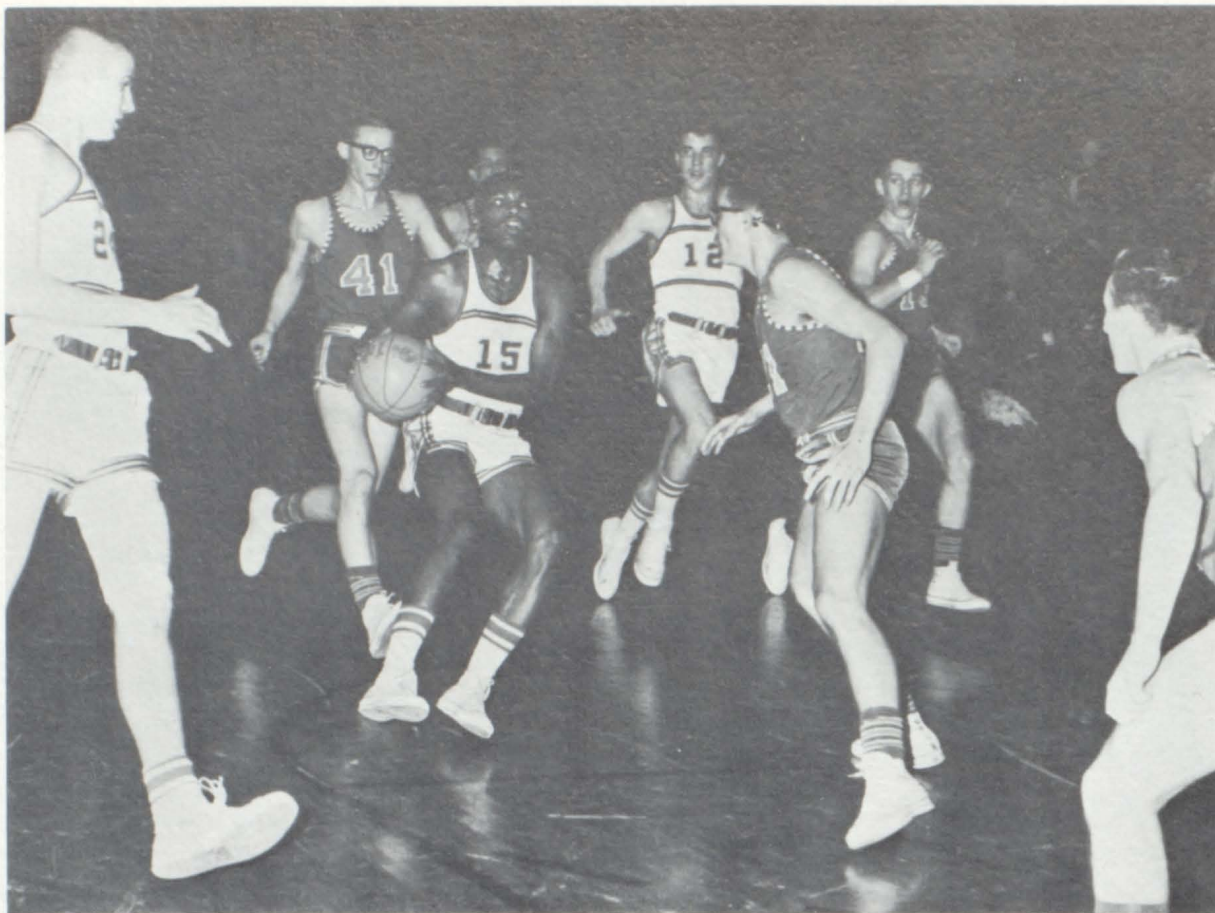

Athletic Director Lee and a highly skilled coaching staff have wisely trained and quidded these boys toward excellent athletic achievement and good sportsmanship.

Tim Willibey and Randy Waterman, two members of the wrestling team, demonstrate their wrestling ability that helped Ypsi win the League Crown again this year.

The varsity football team had a very successful season this year winning five of their eight games. The 5-3 record was the best since 1957, when Ypsi was 5-2-1. The team finished third in the Huron-Rouge League.

The Braves showed much spirit and drive throughout the season. Losing nearly two-thirds of the team last year, the Braves rebuilt themselves in a short time. Juniors and sophomores were used to fill the ranks. After winning their first game, they lost the next three. Then the team began to move as they won the last four games. The highlight of the season came when the Braves beat their new opponent, Holland, 27-19.

The hard working staff of Bob Moffett, head coach; Carl Elliott, and Tom Siebert deserve a lot of credit for the success of the team.

Ypsi High's reserve team worked hard through the season in an attempt to build good varsity prospects for next year. They played five games this year but they were victorious in only one game, beating Melvindale. Many of the players showed improvement as the season progressed. The reserves had a new coaching staff this year with Coach Tackmann, Coach Taylor, and Coach Simpson. Many thanks to them for their time and effort spent.

Under Coach Dick Lee, the Braves, once again had an undefeated season of dual meets. They placed second in the Napoleon Invitational and fifth in the Albion Invitational. The Braves captured the League and Regional Titles again this year. In the State Meet, Ypsi placed third.

The Braves individual honors in the State Meet were taken by Randolph Brewer (3rd), Ernie Slater (4th), Clarence Hollifield (20th), Charles James (38th), and Walter McGuire (66th).

WRESTLING

Ypsi High's wrestling team had a very successful season this year with a 12-2-1 record even though it was a rebuilding year. Ypsi High won the Huron Rouge League crown again this year and then went on to win the Regional crown; 11 boys from the Braves qualified for the State Meet. Placing third in the State Meet, Ypsi had one individual champion--Charles Beatty. John Pilotte placed second after a hard-fought contest, and fourth place went to Dave Hill.

Dave Hill and Jim Chance demonstrate their wrestling ability.

SWIMMING

The Ypsi High swimming team had a new and able coach this year in Mr. Robert Welke. Although the team had a 1 and 14 record, the team was able to improve greatly and it is expected that next year's team will be better. The team was not able to enter league competition because of a closed pool and had to forfeit its last meet because of the lack of pool facilities.

Mr. Welke deserves a thank you for the spirit and drive he showed when the team was low.

Co-captain Ben Burgin, Coach Robert Welke, and Co-captain Larry Frost provided the drive that was so necessary to keep the swimming team at its peak.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Ypsi High's basketball team for the first time since 1958 was able to earn a share of the Huron-Rouge League basketball title. It was shared, as in '58, with Dearborn High.

The Braves ran up an impressive record this season of 13 wins and 4 losses. Mike Bass was high scorer and held the league scoring record this year.

The team was able to place 5th in the Christmas Tournaments. Although ranked 19th in state, the Braves' lost to a strong Adrian team 61-53 and were eliminated from the district contest.

Coach Nicholas deserves a lot of credit for his work with the team and helping make it one of the best seasons ever.

Coaches Dale Nicholas and Tom Siebert.

RESERVE BASKETBALL

The Little Braves had a very successful season this year winning 11 and losing 5. The team was composed of mostly sophomores and is a stepping stone to the varsity team. Several boys were moved up during the year to varsity. The high point of the season came when the reserves placed first in the Wayne Reserve Invitational.

Thank you's are in order for Coach Siebert for his fine work during the season.

Coach Levi Simpson, Mike Bass, Randolph Brewer, and Coach Dick Lee were the driving force behind the Braves this year.

VARSITY TRACK

Ypsi High's track team had a good season this year. Last year the Braves placed 2nd in the League and in the running for the League title this year. Such seniors as Mike Bass, Randolph Brewer, Peter Krueger, and Ernie Slater are expected to help the team go a long way for the crown. Coach Dick Lee and Coach Levi Simpson are to be congratulated for their fine work with the team.

Front Row (l to r): Gary Allen, Clarence Pope, Gary Bowen, Bruce Hays, Bill Abbey. Second Row: Ron Garrett (mgr.), Mike Smith, Dave Farquharson, Tom Marsh, Alcean Witherspoon, Dennis Doan, Mike

Walton. Third Row: Coach Moffett, Don Stout, Larry Brose, Jerry Holly, Jeff Heath, John Seleska, Ed Hays (mgr.).

Varsity Baseball

Varsity baseball got off to a good start this season with a victory over St. Thomas by the score of 12 to 3, and a win over Romulus by the score of 14 to 12. Coach Moffett had seven returning lettermen and twelve new men on this year's squad. This team was determined to uphold Ypsi's reputation as a strong contender for league honors.

Gary Bowen, infielder; Jerry Holly, first baseman; Gary Allen, catcher, sparked the team to a good season.

During varsity team practice Jeff Heath slid into first base as Jerry Hally made a quick catch. Is he safe or out?

As they develop skill which will be used on future varsity teams, the reserves under the direction of Coach Tackmann are determined to uphold the tradition of fine baseball in Ypsilanti High School. The team is largely composed of sophomores who are eager for an opportunity to improve themselves in this popular sport.

The purpose of the Girls' Athletic Club is to stimulate interest in athletics and bring the girls closer together. The club is under the direction of Miss Rataiczak and boasts over 100 members. Girls in grades 10 through 12 can become members by participating in three out of five sports and going through initiation! Points are given for participating in these sports or by helping to conduct a game, and at the end of the year members are entitled to an award.

The sports played are volleyball, basketball, swimming, badminton, and softball. These sports provide lively interclass competition.

A'CAPPELLA

CHOIR

Under the inspiring leadership of Director Jimmie Queen, the A'Cappella Choir has accomplished many worthwhile goals and has achieved many well-deserved honors.

In the first semester, choir members participated in a candy sale to help pay for the beautiful purple and gold robes. They also worked on the Christmas program which was given at an all-school assembly. During the Christmas holidays, they sang at the Sullivan School for Trainable Retarded Children and at a Bank Banquet.

Most of the second semester was spent rehearsing for the Easter Assembly which was most impressive.

A sparkling marching season was set off this year under the direction of Jack W. Seidler. Loyal Brave fans were entertained by lively halftime and pre-game shows such as the never to be forgotten St. Louis Blues March. Then the marching band traveled to the Braves football game at Dearborn, the Hamtramck Christmas Parade, and last, but certainly not least, the thrilling Lions' game in Detroit. Many long hours were spent at Froggy's Island in order to put on the best possible performance.

For the first time in the history of YHS, the concert band accompanied the A'Cappella choir in a special Christmas Assembly. On March 16 the YHS band members participated in the District Band Festival in Garden City. The Military Ball topped off an especially fine season with the theme "Lure of Paradise."

Girls in the 1962-63 Drum and Bugle Corps had the thrill of a lifetime this year. Not only were they a traditional and colorful part of school activities, such as football games and homecoming parades, but also the girls participated in exciting state-wide and national events. The Christmas parade in Hamtramck, the Tulip Festival in Holland, and especially the spectacular Detroit Lions' halftime show will always be remembered.

The fifth annual Senior Banquet given by sophomores and juniors was again an entertaining event. In addition, movies of the halftime show at the Lions' game were shown.
